A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

- 3. Claims 1-3 and 15-18 and 27-28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lee et al (hereinafter referred as Lee) (U.S. Patent No 6,367011)
- 4. As per claim 1-3, Lee discloses a data processing system for initially generating and installing at least one personal security device PSD master key replacement key and at least one PSD master key inside at least one PSD, said system comprising:
  - A first server including data storage means, [Figure 1, ref. Num "154"] (column 5, line 51-53] wherein
  - Said first server [figure 1, ref. Num "154"] is functionally connected to a first hardware security module HSM [figure 1, ref. Num "130"] and a PSD writer [figure 1, ref. Num "150"];

Art Unit: 2132

- Said PSD writer [figure 1, ref. Num "150"] functionally connected to said first server [figure 1, ref. Num "154"] and said at least one PSD; [figure 1, ref. Num "180"]
- Said at least one PSD including a non-mutable unique identification number [column 4, lines 55-65 and column 7, lines 55-column 8, line 3],
- A security executive, a first high level key slot and a second high level key slot, wherein said PSD is functionally connected to said PSD writer; [Figure 1, ref. Num "180" & ref. Num "150"]
- Said first HSM including at least one stored public key, at least one stored master key data block, at least one stored master key replacement key data block and means for generating random numbers, [column 6, lines 11-15] wherein said first HSM [figure 1, ref. Num "130"] is functionally connected to said first server [figure 1, ref. Num "154"]
- 5. As per claim 15-18 and 27-28, Lee discloses a data processing system for post issuance master key replacement for at least one personal security device PSD, said system comprising:
  - A client functionally connected to said at least one PSD/smart card [column 4, lines 39-42] and in secure communications with a first server [figure 1, ref. Num "154"; Column 6, lines 27-28]; Said at least one PSD including a non-mutable unique identification number, a pre-installed key replacement key, an active master key and a security executive [column 7, lines 55-column 8, lines 3], wherein said PSD/smart card [figure 1, ref. Num "180"] is functionally connected to said client [column 4, lines 39-42];

Art Unit: 2132

- A first server [figure 1, ref. Num "154"] including at least one stored unique cryptogram associated with said non-mutable unique identification number, [figure 1, ref. Num "159" and column 8, lines 59-62]
- Wherein said first server [Figure 1, ref. Num "154"] is functionally connected to a first hardware security module HSM [figure 1, ref. Num "130"] and in secure communications with said client; [figure 4, lines 39-42]
- A second server [figure 1, ref. Num "150"] functionally connected to a second HSM [figure 1, ref. Num "152"];
- Said first HSM [Figure 1, ref. Num "130"] including cryptography means, key generation and key transfer means [column 6, lines 11-15],
- Wherein said first HSM [figure 1, ref. Num "130"] is functionally connected to said first server [figure 1, ref. Num "154"];
- Said second HSM [figure 1, ref. Num "152"] including cryptography means, a master key replacement key data block, a master key data block, key generation and key transfer means, at least one stored private key, [column 6, lines 18] (as explained on column 6, line 18, the second HSM is similar/having the similar features with first HSM shown on figure 1, ref. Num "130"]
- Wherein said second HSM [Figure 1, ref. Num "152"] is functionally connected to said second server [figure 1, ref. Num "152"]
